Elizabeth the third child of John Sturman and his 2nd wife Elizabeth Spence was born about 1680 and died 1735. She married first, Jan. 27, 1696, John Stewart, the son of William Stewart, Sr., 2nd Bryant Murphry and 3rd, Thomas Muse, Sr.

Elizabeth Sturmann's first husband, must have been previously married, as there was a son John Stewart, Jr., whose name became associated with her children, but who appeared not to have become of age until 1716 and could not have been her son. (?)

Elizabeth the third child of John Sturman and his 2nd wife Elizabeth Spence was born about 1680 and died 1738. She married first, Jan. 27, 1698, John Stewart, the son of William Stewart, Sr., and Bryant Murphry and 2nd, Thomas Mase, Sr.

Elizabeth Sturman's first husband, must have been previously married, as there was a son John Stewart, Jr., whose name became associated with her children, but who appeared not to have become of age until 1716 and could not have been her son. (?)

My Dear Mrs Chapman;

Thanks for your letter of the 23d; it was indeed an interesting coincidence that you were writing me at the time you were doing so; just another proof of the fact that "Great minds run -" in genealogical channels. Fortunately, I can give you the information you seek as to the marriage of THIS Elizabeth Taliaferro. In the papers in a suit in Chancery, Orange Co, there is a deposition from Francis Whitaker Taliaferro of Epsom, in which he says, "My father (Francis of Epsom) had three daughters; Matilda married Mr. William Helm; Elizabeth, second daughter married Mr. William Stewart of Fauquier Co; Ann Hay married Mr. Lawrence Battaille". This Deposition was taken in 1845 in a suit that had run first for more than thirty years. You will find this - and possibly other data which may be of use to you, Jm & Mary, 2d series, Vol. 7, pp 271-7. This is an article written by myself, wherein it happened that was trying to prove - and did prove - the parentage of THIS Elizabeth Tal'ro.

And, by the way, as you have made mention of my Taliaferro chart, please note 4th line, 2d paragraph of the article referred to above (if you look it up) where speaking of "two Janes, each the daughter of John"; this is an error. Jane of Blenheim was the daughter of Richard and not of John. See ^{same Qtl'y,} Vol. 12, pp 306-7, where I have called attention to this, and one or other errors in my chart. I may also call your attention to another article of mine, in Vol. 13 J&M (2d) p269, et Sequ, Title, 'Elizabeth Hay Taliaferro' (Wife of Francis of Epsom, and mother of Francis Whitaker and Elizabeth), for data on certain allied families which may be useful to you on occasion.

I do not recall whether the article in Vol 7 speaks of the descendant of Elizabeth Stewart (which I presume is same as Stuart); if not, I suggest you communicate with Mrs. J.H. Hiden, Pungoteague, Va (whom you probably know) who may have the information among her Battaille notes.

Further, this deponent sayeth not - except that he will be only too happy to assist you at any time in his power. More anon. J.B. McGroarty.

My Dear Mrs. Chapman;--

Referring to my letter to you of the 14th Sept. I have examined the Willis Book (Byrd Charles 's account) and am sorry to say have found nothing pointing in any way to your Elizabeth Stewart. Your reference, however, to the William Stewart-Wallace connection reminds me that I know some of the Thornton's and the Wallaces of Culpeper Co. These Thorntons are descended from Francis of Fall Hill, and from his son (or grandson), John Stewart Thornton of "Montpelier", which is located in "The F.T. Valley" (Frank Thornton) in Rappahannock Co. This place is called Mont p'leer - to distinguish it from the Madison place Montpel-yr. Could not the Thorntons have dragged the stewarts into THEIR entanglements with the Willis-Taliaferro lines? I am writing to Miss Susan Thornton, Hilly Farm, Culpeper, who is in Telephone touch with a Mrs Wallace (on whom I also depend) and between them they may throw out a life-line. Let us hope; I'll advise results.

May I call attention to the first item on the enclosed Mem.? Can you (without additional trouble) give the date of probate of the will which was drawn Nov. 2, 1771? It must have been prior to 1779; the exact date would help me, if easily obtainable. Please return mem. I am already greatly your debtor - which I hope to requite.

Mrs Blanche C Chapman Smithfield Va.

Sincerely

W B McGroarty

Alex Va Sept 14 1938

My Dear Mrs Chapman;-

Thanks for your letter of yesterday; To find a father and grandfather "at one fell swoop" as it were, is certainly something - if not every thing - and I thank you. I have a hunch (they are so easy to have) that one of Joel Thompson 's, daughters was the wife of Alexander Doniphan. I notice he had an aunt named Ann; That name has gone down along with Joel in this branch of the Doniphan family.

I, too, am puzzled by the Willis-Taliaferro leaning of your Elizabeth Stewart. I will soon have opportunity to go into the Willis history, and will make particular search for this link. I'll advise you of result.

Meantime, thinking you may not have any access to Swen's Index, I have copied references to ROGER GREGORY (husband of Mildred Wash'n), which may be of assistance to you. I do not recall any reference to a son of Roger, but there may have been. If there was one, he was probably named Roger - and I think this list covers more than one of that name. There were a few references to Elizabeth Stewart, which I copied also. Meantime, don't bother any more with the Thompsons - unless you accidentally come across them. I will write again, soon, I hope. Many Many thanks.

To Sincerely

Mrs Lewis L Chapman

Stewart - original in Grinnan family folder

Alexandria Va Nov 14 1938

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

I have been delayed writing you, - various causes - which I regret. Since my last, have been down among the folks in Culpeper and have discussed your problem with Mrs. Wallace, nee Slaughter. A widow of many years.

She says she recalls the name of the Elizabeth Wallace of whom you speak, but only vaguely. She does recall, however, that there was a close intimacy between the Wallaces and Grinnans, and believes there was a relationship, but is not sure.

May I ask if you have contacted Judge Daniel Grinnan, of Richmond? He is President (I think) of the Va. Hist. Soc. His father, Dr. Grinnan, may almost be said to have been the father of Genealogy (as a science and pastime), in Virginia. Judge Grinnan is himself interested along the same lines, and probably has the information you seek. Incidentally, I have found that Martha Stewart who married William Thornton (1775) was really Martha Stuart, of Stafford, the granddaughter of Dr. David Stuart, the old recte of St. Paul's church. Information found in St. Paul Parish records. But that does not help you. Mrs. Wallace and Miss Susan Thornton are trying to aid us further, and if successful will advise. And I will keep trying, too. I hope Mrs. Hyden was able to help. Received your postal, and thank you. Please do not let my matters burden you, unduly. I mean, please take your time. Genealogy, like Art, is long - and sometimes longer alas.

Sincerely

W B McGowarty

Stewart - Original in Gregory family file

Alexandria Va Dec 5 1938

My Dear Mrs. Chapman;

You have doubtless been wondering what had become of your Manuscript? I can only offer traditional excuses for delay in returning it, supported by at least one legitimate one; My daughter and grandson are visiting me - from their home in Halifax, Nova Scotia. It is an annual event, to celebrate three memorable days - her birthday, November 25th, mine the 29th, and Thanksgiving, this time the 24th. I am glad to be able to say that "A good time was had by all", and considering that mine was my eightieth, it means a lot.

I have read your Ms, with interest, and with a due appreciation of the amount of labor, and thought, employed in its preparation. The remarkable similarity you disclose in the lines of the two Elizabeth Stewarts is startling - and a WARNING against trusting too much to Theories.

Your problem now, apparently, rests with the Wallace-Dade-Stewart (Stuart) records. Two sources of information seem (to me) to be open to you. I judge that you have not seen the Wallace section of Hayden's Virginia Genealogies. He has ALL of the Scotch records, and a generous amount of the Virginia line. As an Excursus, he goes into the Dade and Massey - Massie - Masy - lines.

It is possible that this book is not easily available to you; the original is of course long out of print, but a reprint (in very much better type) was issued a few years ago, for which I subscribed. I will be very glad to send you my copy, for such information as it may give you on these, and other lines where it may be of help. I can not offer to copy extracts from it for you, for, to tell the truth, I am not able longer to read fine print - nor indeed, not much of any kind.. I can easily Express the volume to you, to be returned when it has served your purpose.

The other Source is the, or, are the, Records of Overwharton Parish, St Paul's Church, (once in Stafford, now in King Geo) to be found in photostat, in Va. State Library, (Archives Sec). There is the record of a century or two of Stewarts (There, always spelled Stuart). Dades, Lasseys &c. With Thorntons, thrown in. I can't recall all the inter-mingling names, but they DO mingle. I was looking for a Thornton-Stuart marriage, which I found. This was William T, who married Martha Stuart, daughter of the first Rev. David Stuart. These were the Thornton's of "Montpelier", on Thornton River.

I feel that I am Rambling now. I only hope that out of it you may be able to cull a helpful suggestion. I thank you for the further Thompson data. Please dismiss them from your mind now. Let me know as to the book. Pardon sudden conclusion; Sincerely W B McGroarty.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

I received a real thrill when your wonderful books were received. many many thanks for the same. I have read them page by page and enjoyed every one.

I congratulate you upon a marvelous piece of work. I appreciate all the time & patience required to produce such a work.

I am not at all pleased with my Sanquien County Records.

I wanted to take them from 1759 to 1850, but was taken ill when in Warrenton, & was unable to complete.

3. Again I encountered trouble, after cutting all the stencils made the sad discovery that I had been sold sold inferior stencils - altho they were purchased from largest mimeograph supply house in L.A. & with a guarantee that they would give same results as my stencils. When error was brought to their attention they were willing to make good in any way possible, but my interest & strength had weakened. If my son had not spent his Christmas vacation in reviewing the work some confident Fauquier County Records would not have been completed.

You inquired about a Stewart line in Virginia - I have always been interested in the Stewarts of that state - as both my parents were Stewarts (Virginia)

Do you have access to the Stewart Clan Magazine? In the issues for

3. Dec. 1929 & Jan. 1930 are articles on the Stewarts of Spottsylvania Co. Va; consisting of county, military & miscellaneous records. Mention is made of a Joseph Stewart, and that he may have been a son of Charles Stewart, of Spottsylvania who is thought to have been born about 1690. I presume you have all the Stewart records from Spottsylvania - should you be interested in above mentioned articles I shall be happy to copy for you.

In Stewart Clan Magazine for April, 1936, mention is made that Miss Virginia Kelly, 408 Magrill St., Longview, Texas, a descendant of Robt. Stewart, of Spottsylvania Co. was preparing a genealogical record of Spottsyl. Stewarts. I have data on the Stewarts of Prince William & Fauquier Counties - but can see no connection between them & the families in Spottsylvania County.

It is astounding the number of James Stewarts who arrived in Pennsylvania & Virginia about the same time. The name of Joseph is not common among the Stewarts of Pa. & Va., but is found in N. Carolina & Georgia.

Should I find anything that seems to shed light on the ancestry of your Joseph Stewart I will copy for you.

Thanking you again for your wonderful books,

Most cordially,
J. Estlin King.
